ST JOSEPH'S – OUR PARISH WEBPAGE

As I said last week, we now have our webpage working again at <https://stjosephsdundee.org.uk> but there is not much content so we need to spend quite a lot of time and effort in providing you with a parish webpage that you will want to regularly visit. I am happy to support this project but would ask for your help. I think that we need a small team of 3 or 4 people to drive the initial concepts and we will want your individual thoughts and suggestions on what to include. Don't leave this to someone else, talk to me if you want to help, whether it be a little or a lot. My email, if you prefer to contact me that way, is john.sinclair9@hotmail.co.uk Since last week, I have only received information from one person so can I please ask again for some support. Many thanks – John Sinclair

Sunday Newsletter

I am the way, and the truth, and the life.

"I am the way, the truth, and the life" (John 14:6) is not just a statement—it is an invitation. In a world full of confusion, Jesus does not merely show a path; He is the path. When our hearts are troubled, He calls us to trust, reminding us that faith is not about having all the answers, but about knowing the One who does.

In Acts, the early Church faced challenges, yet by staying rooted in Christ, they grew stronger. In Peter's letter, we are called "living stones," built upon Christ, the cornerstone. This means our lives find meaning only when grounded in Him.

Jesus is the truth that frees us from falsehood, the way that leads us through uncertainty, and the life that conquers fear and death. Today, let us walk with Him, trust in Him, and become reflections of His light to others, bringing hope, courage and love into every place we go each day. Amen

Readings at Mass

First reading

Acts 6:1-7 •

‘They chose seven men full of the Holy Spirit.’

In those days when the disciples were increasing in number, a complaint by the Hellenists arose against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution. And the Twelve summoned the full number of the disciples and said, ‘It is not right that we should give up preaching the word of God to serve tables. Therefore, brothers and sisters, pick out from among you seven men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we will appoint to this duty. But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word.’ And what they said pleased the whole gathering, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch. These they set before the Apostles, and they prayed and laid their hands on them.

And the word of God continued to increase, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests became obedient to the faith.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 33(32):1-2. 4-5. 18-19. R22

May your merciful love be upon us,

as we hope in you, O LORD.

or: Alleluia.

Ring out your joy to the LORD, O you just;

for praise is fitting from the upright.

Give thanks to the LORD upon the harp;

with a ten-stringed lute sing him songs.

May your merciful love be upon us,

as we hope in you, O LORD.

or: Alleluia.

The word of the LORD is upright,

and all his works to be trusted.

The LORD loves justice and right,

and his merciful love fills the earth.

May your merciful love be upon us,

as we hope in you, O LORD.

or: Alleluia.

Yes, the LORD’S eyes are on those who fear him,

who hope in his merciful love,

to rescue their soul from death,

to keep them alive in famine.

May your merciful love be upon us,

as we hope in you, O LORD.

or: Alleluia.

Second reading

1 Peter 2:4-9 •

‘But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood.’

Beloved: Come to the Lord, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious. You yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it stands in Scripture: ‘Behold, I am laying in Sion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.’ So the honour is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe, ‘The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone’, and ‘A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence.’ They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

Gospel Acclamation

John 14:6

Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the way, and the truth, and the life, says the Lord.

No one comes to the Father except through me.

Alleluia.

Gospel

John 14:1-12

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, ‘Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going.’ Thomas said to him, ‘Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?’ Jesus said to him, ‘I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him.’

Philip said to him, ‘Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, “Show us the Father”? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves.

‘Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father.’
